Discover Abroad: Winter Break Australia

The following is a full explanation of estimated costs associated with this study abroad program.

A nonrefundable commitment deposit of $300 will be required after you are accepted into the program, due within one week of acceptance. This deposit will be subtracted from the total program fee. The remainder of the program fee, tuition, and UGA fees will be billed to your UGA student account and due by November 30, 2016, which is two weeks prior to program departure. Note that this date is prior to the Bursar’s deadline for Spring 2017.

Program fee: $2,995
The program fee includes all accommodations, international health insurance, in-country ground transportation, and roughly 80% of meals. The program fee also includes unique activities such as snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef, guided hikes, and cultural city tours. The program fee does not include UGA (Summer) tuition, UGA fees, or airfare.

Tuition and UGA fees: $3,373
Tuition is billed at a flat rate of $2,782 for 6 credit hours during UGA’s Spring semester for ALL undergraduate students. Graduate and professional students will pay rates associated with their programs. For Georgia residents attending a Georgia school, HOPE and Zell Miller scholarships apply to tuition in the same way that they would apply for on-campus courses. The following fees will be assessed for every student at a minimum: UGA Special Institutional fee $450, ConnectUGA fee $30, Green fee $3, and Technology fee $114. Please refer to the UGA Bursar’s website for the most up-to-date tuition and UGA fee amounts. Click here for tuition and fee schedules and the mandatory fee policy: http://www.bursar.uga.edu

Non-UGA students must apply for admission to UGA as a transient student after acceptance to the Spring Semester program. There is a $60 UGA admissions application fee. Additionally, if you are a transient student and your home institution is not in the SEC network or the University System of Georgia, there is an additional $250 transient fee.

Airfare: ~$2,500
This includes round-trip airfare from Atlanta, GA to Australia. An optional group flight will be available with details to be distributed to accepted students at a later time.

Course materials: ~$90 for the required course book

Personal spending: ~$230
To account for meals not included in the program fee as well as money for personal necessities including laundry and Wi-Fi, we recommend $10/day. Other optional personal activities not provided as part of the program fee are all additional costs such as scuba diving (A$180~ for a discover dive and A$120 if PADI certified, with equipment included), Sydney bridge walk (A$280~), etc. Please note that these optional personal activities are not covered under the international health insurance purchased by Discover Abroad on behalf of students and Discover Abroad does not condone any of these activities.

Please contact Discover Abroad by phone (706-542-9713) or email (discoverabroad@uga.edu) if you have any questions about estimated costs for this study abroad program.
