Fiji: Ecotourism and Sustainability 2019

The following information is provided only as an estimate of costs associated with this particular study abroad program offered through Discover Abroad with the University of Georgia.

A non-refundable commitment deposit of $300 (paid toward the program fee) will be required after you are accepted into the program, due within one week of acceptance. The remainder of the program fee, along with your full UGA Summer 2019 tuition and UGA fees, will be billed to your UGA student account after registration and due in-full no later than May 5, 2019.

Program fee: $895
The program fee includes accommodations, international health insurance, in-country ground transportation, and 100% of meals. The program fee also includes unique activities such as snorkeling in the Pacific, a village homestay, and more. The program fee does not include UGA tuition and fees or airfare.

Tuition and UGA fees: $1277
This is the amount charged to undergraduate students through the University of Georgia who register for only the courses associated with the Fiji program for the entirety of Summer 2019. Students who register to take additional courses at UGA during Summer 2019 or students who are part of a graduate or professional program will be assessed additional tuition and fees.

If students choose to combine this program with either the Maymester Australia and New Zealand program or the Summer Australia: Global Health program, UGA fees will not be assessed twice. The tuition-only portion of this cost for this program is $954.

Non-UGA students who apply for admission as a study abroad transient student for Summer 2019 will pay a $70 application fee and an additional $250 fee if their home institution is not within the SEC or USG network.

Airfare: ~$1500
This cost includes round-trip airfare from Atlanta, GA. Students combining this program with another Discover Abroad program can usually add a stop in Fiji to their other program’s flight plan at a cheap rate. Students who choose to combine their programs will be presented with a group booking which includes all international flights, provided there is enough interest in that particular combination.

Personal spending: ~$50
To account only for personal spending on souvenirs, supplementary food, and laundry.
