Spring Semester Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, and Hawai’i 2020

The following information is provided only as an estimate of costs associated with this particular study abroad program offered through Discover Abroad with the University of Georgia.

A nonrefundable commitment deposit of $500 (paid toward the program fee) will be required after you are accepted into the program, due within one week of acceptance. The remainder of the program fee, along with your full UGA Spring tuition and UGA fees, will be billed to your UGA student account after registration, and the total is due to be paid in-full no later than January 8, 2020.

Program fee: $6995
The program fee includes all accommodations except for the week of spring break, international health insurance, in-country ground transportation, and roughly 80% of meals. The program fee also includes unique activities such as snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef, guided hikes, and more. The program fee does not include UGA tuition and fees, course materials, or airfare.

Tuition and UGA fees: $5613
This is the amount charged to undergraduate students through the University of Georgia who register for only the courses associated with the Spring Semester program for the entirety of Spring Semester (based on the previous year’s amount). Students who register to take additional courses at UGA during Spring 2020 or students who are part of a graduate or professional program will be assessed additional tuition and fees.

This cost represents a savings for both in-state (~$536 savings) and out-of-state (~$9823 savings) students.

Non-UGA students who apply for admission as a study abroad transient student for Spring 2020 will pay a $70 application fee and an additional $250 fee if their home institution is not within the SEC or USG network.

Group Airfare: $2150 (plus cost of flight from originating airport to KOA and return from LAX)
This cost includes optional round-trip airfare arranged by Discover Abroad from Kona (KOA) and throughout Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia, and Fiji, ending in Los Angeles (LAX). Students who utilize this option are responsible for arranging transportation to KOA and from LAX, at additional cost. Students may opt to procure their own international and domestic flight package, for which costs may vary significantly.

Course materials: ~$130

Personal spending: ~$1500
To account for meals not included in the program fee, personal necessities including laundry and Wi-Fi, and accommodations for spring break. Other optional personal activities not provided as part of the program fee are all additional costs such as scuba diving (~AU$180 for a discover dive and ~AU$120 if PADI certified, with equipment included), Sydney bridge walk (~AU$280), bungy jumping (~NZ$270), etc. Please note that these optional personal activities are not covered under the international health insurance purchased by Discover Abroad on behalf of students. Discover Abroad does not specifically condone activities outside of the program itinerary.
