The following information is provided only as an estimate of costs associated with this particular study abroad program offered through Discover Abroad with the University of Georgia.

A nonrefundable commitment deposit of $300 (paid toward the program fee) will be required after you are accepted into the program, due within one week of acceptance. The remainder of the program fee will be billed to your UGA student account after registration for this program and is due to be paid in-full prior to departure for the program, no later than December 17, 2020.

Program fee: $2995
The program fee includes all accommodations, international health insurance, in-country ground transportation, and roughly 75% of meals. The program fee also includes unique activities such as snorkeling in the Great Barrier Reef, guided hikes, and more. The program fee does not include UGA tuition and fees, course materials, or airfare.

Tuition and UGA fees: $0* **
For undergraduate students already planning to take a full course load (over 6 credit hours) at UGA during the Spring 2020 semester, the additional cost in UGA tuition and fees for adding this program is $0.

* All other students should email the Discover Abroad office for detailed tuition costs.

 All non-UGA students who apply for admission as a study abroad transient student for Spring 2021 will pay a $70 application fee and an additional $250 fee if their home institution is not within the SEC or USG networks.

Group Airfare: $2450 (plus cost of flight from originating airport to LAX and return)
This cost includes optional round-trip airfare arranged by Discover Abroad from Los Angeles (LAX) and throughout Australia. Students who utilize this option are responsible for arranging transportation to and from Los Angeles, at additional cost. Students may opt to procure their own international and domestic flight package, for which costs may vary significantly.

Course materials: ~$75

Personal spending: ~$230
To account for meals not included in the program fee as well as money for personal necessities including laundry and Wi-Fi, we recommend $10 per day. Other optional personal activities not provided as part of the program fee are all additional costs. These may include scuba diving (~AU$180 for a discover dive and ~AU$120 if PADI certified, with equipment included), Sydney bridge walk (~AU$280), etc. Please note that these optional personal activities are not covered under the international health insurance purchased by Discover Abroad on behalf of students. Discover Abroad does not specifically condone activities outside of the program itinerary.
